

Sittings of the Sheriff Appeal Court Order 2023

The President of the Sheriff Appeal Court makes this Order in exercise of the powers conferred by section 57(3) of the Courts Reform (Scotland) Act 2014 and all other powers enabling her to do so.

Interpretation

1. In this Order—

“civil business” means an appeal—

- (a) to which section 109 of the Courts Reform (Scotland) Act 2014 applies;
- (b) under section 110 of the Courts Reform (Scotland) Act 2014; or
- (c) under any other enactment which provides that an appeal may be taken to the Sheriff Appeal Court from the decision of a sheriff in civil proceedings;

“criminal business” means—

- (a) an appeal, bill of suspension or bill of advocation under Part X (appeals from summary proceedings) of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995; or
- (b) an appeal under any other enactment which provides that an appeal relating to criminal proceedings may be taken to the Sheriff Appeal Court;

“designated place” means any place in Scotland designated by virtue of the Courts Reform (Scotland) Act 2014 for the holding of sheriff courts;

“local civil business” means civil business of a description specified in paragraph 1(3) (quorum of the Court: single Appeal Sheriff) of Schedule 1 of the Act of Sederunt (Sheriff Appeal Court Rules) 2021.
