

Central Scotland

North Strathclyde

Ardrossan

A Health and Safety fine imposed on a company in 2004 had never been paid. SCS tracked the company director down and the full £2500 was paid in November 09.

Paisley

A 21 year old Paisley man received a £500 Sheriff Court fine for assault. SCS issued an earnings arresment order and the fine has been fully paid.

Greenock

A 19 year old offender with seven fine accounts amounting to £730 for assault and drinking in public offences. SCS has secured a benefit deductions order to deduct regular amounts to pay the fine.

Again in Greenock, and 21 year old offender had a court imposed fine of £600 for breach of the peace. SCS secured arrestment of funds order and confirmation received from his bank that funds will be released to SCS.

Glasgow

In Glasgow a 54 year old company director with an outstanding £100 fixed penalty for a traffic offence was refusing to pay. Using tracing facilities we secured bank details and a contact number. Dialogue failed and we issued an Arrestment of Funds letter warning this was the next action and the balance was paid in full.

A 31 year old man with two court fines for assault and breach of the peace failed to pay his £600 fine. SCS identified his employers and issued an earnings arresment order. The fine is now being deducted regularly from his wages.

Edinburgh

In Edinburgh an unemployed 44 year old had £600 of fines outstanding for breach of the peace and racial (abuse). The offender failed to appear at court and a warrant was issued. He was advised the warrant would be cancelled if arrears were paid and he entered into an arrangement to pay the balance by instalments. This was done and the accounts have been paid.

Livingston

No fine is too small to be enforced. A 34 year old was given a £75 fiscal fine for having no TV licence. Some of the fine was paid but Fine Enforcement Officers contacted the offender to clear the £15 outstanding balance.

Top 100

4 warrants issued in respect of a 38 year old Greenock offender for offences of theft and breach of the peace after top 20 court and paid in full to police - £1635.
