

PRACTICE NOTE

No. 2 of 2004

Procedure Roll

1. The following practice notes are hereby revoked:-

26th April 1991 (No. 3 of 1991)

Procedure Roll

30th October 1996 (No. 6 of 1996)

Notes of Argument

12th December 1997 (No. 4 of 1997)

Notes of Argument.

2. Practitioners are reminded that the court expects that, on the closing of the record, discussions will take place between parties about the future procedure in the cause with particular regard to the resolution of points at issue without recourse to a hearing on the Procedure Roll.
3. The court may, in determining any question of expenses arising out of a hearing on the Procedure Roll, take into account the extent to which parties have complied with paragraph 2 above.

LORD PRESIDENT

Edinburgh

6 August 2004